Dear Weber

I had a quiet morning in bed yesterday — after a heavy week, and had the great — really great — pleasure of reading carefully some chapters of your book. I am immensely impressed with the amount of work you have put into it. My wife is so pleased with your dedication — but alas! that my boy cannot see it, as he appreciated all such things so keenly: -----

Sincerely yours
