Dear MacAlister

I am sorry not to be able to come on Tuesday but I have to go to London this a.m. to say good bye to Page; tomorrow I have Billings of Chicago, Philip King Brown of 'Frisco and Seymour of Boston, and Taplow (as usual) Monday. Thus, with a revision of my text-book on hand, and the printers squealing I must cut out as much as possible.

Yours,

W. O.
