

CUS 417 / 126 . 118

28 11 20

Letters to General Bradshaw.

1918.

October 20.

I had to take the Oxford D.M. by decree - matriculate and pay ordinary fees, as Council would not break the rule not to give the honorary D.M. I think they are wise and the rule holds in most Universities.

Yours sincerely,