To Sir. J. MacAlister.

Letter Script.

Oxford.

8. 1. 19.

Dear MacAlister,

I cannot take the Presidency ~~and~~<sup>to</sup> the Fellowship.. I am tied up now with more things than I can attend to and I must finish the revision of my book this year. It seems hopeless with so many distractions that go on in the house to get anything done.

I am awfully sorry.

Yours sincerely,

Wm. Osler.
