Dr. Hurd, Baltimore.

re Brooks. I am delighted to have monograph of Brooks. What a splendid observer he was! Has a bibliography of his writing appeared? and where was the best biographical notice? 1 should like to have for my library . . .

up to the time of his death to Edward Dowden.

Lib- Dear President, (J.H.H.)

cusq17/127.50 Jan. 31. I am so glad you are to make the announcements on the rary. 22nd. Please lay stress upon the purpose of the gift, as a stimulus to the students of Eng. literature. All details may be arranged His \hereafter as it will be, I suppose, a year at least before the Son'sbooks could be sent out. As I mentioned, that section of my bookslibrary which was to go to him, will be sent out with his books. It will be among the special editions that you will be interested to know are a good many of the originals of Shelley, the 1645 Milton poems, original eds. of the Paradise Lost and Paradise Regained, original Keats, Donnes, Fuller, Gulliver's Travels, and a particularly interesting collection of Walt Whitman's Magazine articles, newspaper clippings sent by Whitman from 1876
