

(From Miss Smart's [Secy's] notebook)

To Miss Jebb.

March 3, 1942
CUS 417/127.142

Fund
for Central Europe.

Thanks for the translation in which I was much interested as several of the speakers are old friends, particularly the Chairman and Prof. Orth. I think the statements are sane and moderate, and it means of course that no time should be lost in getting all the food possible into Germany...