

To Dr. H.C. Wood, Phila.

CUS417/127.169

The streak of the fool in you of which you speak is like the golden thread in the cloak of Epictetus, the very feature that your friends love... I should like to see India and Japan - particularly if you were along with me. So sorry to hear to-day of dear good Jim Tyson's death - he was an Israelite indeed without guile. Love to you all.