

The following letters from other people show how Diller grasped every opportunity of helping Vienna,

-1

From a letter by Dr Hector Mearns:

CUS417/128.52
20. V. 49.

D. W. I am leaving for Vienna ... I had a long talk with William Osler and Sir David Henderson ... My mission is to get the medical profession in England and America thoroughly roused.

I will go straight to see you when I arrive in Vienna

Signed by Dr.

2

From the sister Mabel, Dr Harriette Chick: 5. VIII. 49.

an amateur Mearns got there before the letter arrived. A curious chap. Got war service. Psychoanalyst. Must be a doctor.