

CUS417/128. 120

Oxford and Reading Branch—British Medical Association.

PRESIDENT—SIR WILLIAM OSLER, BART., F.R.S.

June 23rd, 1919.

Dear Sir, or Madam,

A MEETING of the above will be held at the RADCLIFFE INFIRMARY, OXFORD, on TUESDAY, JULY 1ST, at 2-30 p.m.

AGENDA.

- 1.—Minutes of last Annual Meeting.
 - 2.—Election of President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and Members of Branch Council for ensuing year.
 - 3.—Notice re Epsom Charity.
-
- 2-45. Exhibition of Cases and Specimens by Sir William Osler, Cols. W. T. Brooks, W. Collier, Anglin Whitelocke, Majors Mallam and Bevers, and Dr. Graham.
 - 3-15. "The Radcliffe Infirmary Extension at Headington," Rev. G. P. Cronshaw.
 - 3-25. "The Principles of Treatment of the Psycho-neuroses," Dr. McDougall.
 - 3-50. "Some points on closing Traumatic Openings in the Intestine," Col. A. P. Dodds-Parker.
 - 4-10. "Systolic Murmurs in young adults," Col. Wm. Collier.
 - 4-40. TEA. By kind invitation of the President.
 - 5-0. "Two rare forms of Cancer," Mr. Hastings Gilford.
 - 5-10. "Some Notes on the operative treatment of Fractures," Mr. W. B. Secretan.
 - 5-25. "The Function of a Venereal Clinic, with illustrative cases," Maj. A. G. Gibson.
 - 7-0. DINNER AT EXETER COLLEGE. (4/-)

TRAINS. Reading, 1.33 } arr. Oxford, 2.7.
Maidenhead, 1.4 }

RETURN. Oxford, 9.25. arr. Reading, 9.59.
Maidenhead, 10.42.

E. W. SQUIRE (Hon. Sec.)
223, King's Road, Reading.

It is my intention to be present at the Branch Dinner at Exeter College. I intend to bringGuests.

.....
If coming, please send slip to President, 13, Norham Gardens, Oxford, as soon as possible.