That's a most interesting book, but I wish I could read it! It's interesting, too, typographically; I see it is lithographed. Do you know anything of the author? He is not in Hirsch. I am glad there is so much in French. Thanks for your kind inscription. Is the big Brescia translation of Razes fairly complete? It's a huge thing - I wish you had time to see the Merton copy which is one of the two or three largest incunabula.

Sincerely and thankfully yours,

P.S. Excuse delay - I have been laid up with a cold.
