(From Miss Smart's notebook)

(To Mr. Paul Hoeber)

July 21, 1919.

Some of Sir W. Osler's dictated letters of, 1919 (continued).

Paul Hoeber, Esq. (Annals of Medicine), N.Y. July 21.

Birthday volumes.

Vésal.

Annals of Medicine.

We were delighted at the celebration to have the anniversary volumes. Everybody was delighted with the typography and the plate is excellent. What a big job it has been for you! I cabled you 'approve' about the Vésal iconography which should be a great work. Spielmann is a man of the first rank and the work will be of great credit to your publishing house. I hope you do not find the Annals too heavy a burden - it has certainly been a great success so far. I will have something for the next number, and hearty thanks for all you have done in connection with the anniversary volumes.
