To Sir John MacAlister.

Letter Script.

Oxford.

30. VII. 19.

Dear MacAlister,

Pardon delay. I have been for a few days in the Cotswolds. Yes of course, we could have F. on our committee as an active member. He has plenty of drive. I have been hoping to get to town to have a talk with you and Wright but have not been very well. The attack left me with a huskiness. I am now better and am off to Jersey. (Rockmount, St. Brelade's Bay) for six weeks.

I do hope you will get away for a good rest. How the deuce do you stand the incessant calls on your retina and organs of corti?

Yours,

Wm. Osler.
