Dearest Sue

Sister has at last found a resting place - with sea sands & sun & rocks thrown in. Only we wish every day that you were here. 'Twould just suit you. Such splendid bathing, and at any tide I go in, so you may know it is nice & warm. Bill goes in 2 or 3 times. We are really very comfortable & the old men begin to bring us fish & lobsters. I am glad you liked my family but it was too bad that F. & E.B. were not in good form. I envy you seeing my darling. I do hope she was up to your expectations. How pleased the Marions & Otilie will have been to have you and that angel 'Mabel' as the girls call Mrs McCagg. Did you ever know such a buttering as the old man got on his 70th bth-day! Lucky they do not all know the truth! We are so rejoiced in the nice letters from Bar Harbor. It is splendid that that fine girl is having a good time. She does deserve it. I think Sallie may pull out better than we thought. She is writing nice p.c.'s to Grace. Love to all your darlings & to L-Sue & Maggie & the boys.

Yours- ever.

W.

Agent will send list of med. sized Curzon St. houses - furnished.

W.O. was continually joining J.C. about their leaving J.R.O. and saying to live somewhere by themselves.
