

Beginning of Walt Whitman address and copied by others in 1919. Jersey 1919

~~Charles..... of (George Elliot)..... For as its motto "Surely who ever speaks to me in the right voice him as he, shall follow as the waters follow the moon, silently, with fluid steps, anywhere around the globe." These were the happy days when the novels of the great Englishwoman, came out in parts and these were days when men were really young and impassioned. Beneath the lines were "Leaves of Grass: Walt Whitman" The lines stuck like a bar, the name of the book and the author vanished so completely, that .....~~

Used this in 1886

~~because that he was not the first to put out a book in his Philadelphia way~~