.....I am awefully sorry to have missed Sarton, to whom I have just written..... We have got back from Jersey after a delightful six weeks' holiday. Tell Sarah to read.
...the Cambridge history of American literature, two volumes of which have appeared. They will be good for the other children.
I find several notices here about Jacobi - dear soul - we have been warm friends for more than 30 years. By this time you will have had my Classical Association address.
