Accept of Hill's concerning W.O., last illness

Remarkable book "Words in Pain" (anonymous) was the title from King Richard II II.

... the tongues of dying men
Surface attention like deep hurricanes;
Where words are scarce, they are
seldom spent in vain;
For they breathe truth, those breathe
their words in pain.

Put this in comment on W.O.'s study of "lost words" for Dr. J. G. ... the may have had in mind.

Woman's concern of life who committed suicide was practically on

Alfred Lodge "Requiem" (formed by success Paul Jamington & Conroy Doyle)

What Mercier has said in the pursuit of the occult occur with the repetition of episodes of messes and his words never enters dis one in the intervals.

Miracles are not to be presumed until natural cause have been ruled out. Mercier's final sentence, attrib. to W.O. of Oct 1890 (the inmovible Requiem)
