Rec. 10 Feb 1851

Montevideo Nov. 24, 1850

Dear John,

I hope that by this time you have rec'd my parcel by Mr. [illegible] & the [illegible] of the vessel is telegraphed through the [illegible] is not in [illegible]. I only write now to you but I have already written at some length to [illegible] letter to Mr. [illegible] which I also [illegible] you to write to [illegible] Bell [illegible] to [illegible] my [illegible] on my legal prospects. They [illegible] it [illegible] you know [illegible]. It is a part of our [illegible] another receipt book. The writing [illegible] be at least [illegible] hundred years old but [illegible] to any [illegible] of the [illegible] looking [illegible] I think the [illegible] must have been copied [illegible] this [illegible] just [illegible] another receipt book [illegible] as [illegible]

[illegible]

the use of the word "sack" the meaning of which was lost even than a century ago. It is now supposed to be dry as any wine as distinguished from the sweet wines, hence the Sack of the receipt. I should like to see the receipt which acting Sherry. Falstaff says "sherris sack". Not at Any rate when I knew which was called Sherry the Pale Pale dry must be quite but the darker thought these latter should be. The cost of egg & butter in the others would be little above a trifle extra

Mr Thos Hood Junr
Mrs M. Clay
Mrs M.
Alexandria
United States