Liverpool

My dear Sir,

Captain Thompson of the County of Lonsdale has charge of and will deliver to you a present from a few of your friends in "Whitcham", which should have been sent ere now but from the wish we entertained to procure as good an article as we could lay our hands upon.

Most sincerely do we wish that you may long be spared to enjoy the Gift and to continue in the possession of the esteem and regard of all who know you.

In a future letter I may possibly send you the names of the Subscribers to this mark of their respect for you - meantime I am,

My dear Sir,

Yours very truly

John Gibsons

Whitcham 2 September 1837

On the back of this is a pencil draft dated June 21st 1837 on Sep 6 37 of R D's initials for this present but what it was is not mentioned. I wish the letter itself or an ink copy of it signed by R D

Robert Abraham Esq
