

My dear Miss Mozet,

Do I prefer Tuesday with D^r Mozet or Thursday without him?

A question not to be asked. I shall be very happy to change our evening to Thursday, for which I have no engagement.

Yours ever truly

Abner S. Saturday.

L. A. Kim

Miss Proget
Bernard Street
Russell Square

3

My dear Miss Proget, Most sincerely do I regret that any circumstances should have rendered it necessary for you to quit London & your friends in it for the purpose of devoting yourself alone to the performance of a duty not less melancholy than sacred.
If I could assist you in any manner it would afford me the greatest satisfaction; but with respect to Anne Morris I can unfortunately now do nothing; she is at present in a place which suits her, & declines leaving her situation. I know no one else whom I could recommend;

but is there not something or other in which you could make me useful to you? Shall I come to you, if you would like it, only say the word.

Perhaps, out of my long, sad experience, I might be able to suggest a few things which may have escaped you, — at all events I should wish to take leave of you, & assure you once more of my esteem, my regard, & my heart-felt sympathy.

Believe me very truly yours

Wednesday morn^g

A. H. H. H.

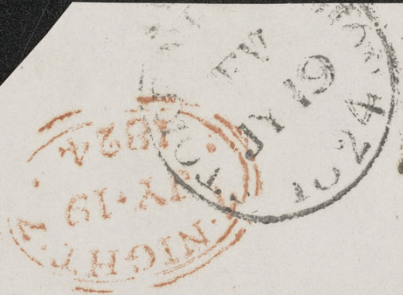

Lucy Aikin

Daughter of Dr. Aikin and niece to Mrs. Barbauld:—author of some poems "Memoirs of Dr. Aikin," "Memoirs of the Court of Queen Elizabeth," "Memoirs of James 1st."

7

8

Mary Howitt

39
Miss Proget

Bernard Street

My dear Miss Proget;

It will give us very great pleasure to receive yourself & Dr. Proget tomorrow evening, should the weather, as I hope, prove propitious; we are indeed early people, but our time of tea drinking tomorrow shall be that most convenient to you; I can only say, the sooner you come the better, as we shall keep you the longer - we will begin expecting you from about six.

Yours truly

Monday morn? Lucy Martin