

Lahore.

Ash Wednesday 1892

My dear Mr de Forest

If I were a horse, — and I sometimes wish I were, — the out of a worrying existence, — I should be a "confirmed" jibber, — not quite vicious; not altogether incapable of going when once set in motion, but apt at unexpected times & places to refuse to start. I have lashed myself unmercifully for my failure to write to you for months and months; but the more I have thrashed the more firmly did my fore legs seem set together and the more obstinately was my head pulled down.

But now here are your & Mr de Forest's kind letters of the 2nd ult: and I must start - and, like many a jibber, once set in motion I am glad to write. To thank you for your congratulations about Reddy. - If I had been in his place I think I should have preferred the younger & prettier sister; but a merciful Providence has ordained a mystery. in the matter of choice of a wife in which no outsider, tho' never so near, has a right to say a word. I am sure it will settle and soothe and fix him generally. Moreover it will remove a little slur of injustice I have often detected in people's talk about him. - In this way, - because he writes freely & boldly of good and ill and knows a great many shady things some people have spoken of him as writing from experience of ~~shady things~~ them and ~~has~~ had a naughty youth. As a matter of fact I don't know of all the young men I know intimately, and they are many, - one who has lived a more stainless life in all the essential points of clean living. It is a good thing I think that he has married ~~and~~ and taken up the semblance of that decent, wholesome respectability to which in fact he has always been wedded. Some folks have claimed in him a sympathy with irregularity &c - but there is absolutely no warrant for anything of the kind.

In the matter of the double payment for the arches, Messrs Wall Latham & Co have probably told you that the other Latham (stupid, having two firms of such similar names) - who had quietly absorbed the remittance from you without saying a word to us - refunded the amount to them so that it lies to your credit with them.

I find that during my absence things went all sorts of ways. My locum tenens, and assistant,

BOMBAY
NOV. 29
89

N.Y.
1-2-89
D

NEW YORK
DEC
24 89
C
PAID
PO
ALL

Prindisi &
United Kingdom

U. S. MAIL STATION NEW YORK
GRANITE CITY

Mrs Lockwood De Forest
7 East 10th Street
New York.
U. S. A.

J. L. Kipling

am for your kindness to my wife will write Believe me
Very sincerely
yours
D. H. Hill
Mrs De Forest
26 Hill
Nov. 1899

You are as just in your judgment, as right in every way, as unanswerable in your questions as to my evil behaviour, as the Recording Angel — but I trust after all to your mercy.

I don't think St Lawrence of blessed memory suffered more on his gridiron than I have from those neglected chairs and tables in turnery.

I want, if possible, a little more definite idea. It is possible to do turnery furniture in a dozen ways - with Cairene - criss cross and other treatments or in the Savage Indian way.

My own experiments were not satisfactory.

It was plain to see that they were "gotten up," unspontaneous, - and over ingenious, - not a bit like the common turnery furniture here made for wedding presents. But then I doubt if you would like the native turned chair as it stands. It is so hard, however, to touch it without spoiling it.

Ask Mr De Forest, please to put down yet one or two more lines - showing in what way he would treat the things.

I don't want to make a worse blunder than is avoidable under the circumstances. Also - colour ???

I have got some sozins the embroidered quilts from Central Asia of which ~~you~~ ^{my son} spoke and will send you one or two to see.

But I doubt if you will like them - for they are so positive, not to say aggressive in pattern and colour. Great blobs of red - &c - but ~~no~~ ^{no} ~~shades~~ see. I showed them to Mr. ^{Hopland} who lives here the other day & he gently ^{shuddered}.

I write to save the post; - especially every minute to leave to hurry out - to receive our new Vicar, Lord Lansdowne - and I have emerged from a sick room with as much voice as a railway break, to do this. But please give my love to Mr de Forest and I pray for both to believe how grateful I

Andrews is a young fellow with cleverish hands for sketching & and a good notion of teaching but I can't get him to learn the language, the art of the country, to read its history and he seems incapable of management - has no head.

We now have one of the finest schools in existence so far as rooms and space go. And next door we have built a gigantic, - ter gigantic Museum. This will be finished next autumn & we propose to inaugurate it by an exhibition of a comparatively restricted kind in the winter of 1892-93. It will not be a big thing in scope, but there will be some things - as carpets & wood-carving - that will show an advance on the one ten years ago. Yours & Mrs de Forest's better come over than.

This time, I went to work in a subterranean fashion. I wanted a show to inaugurate our new Museum and didn't object to running it myself. But I got the local Municipality to propose it and secured thus the support of outsiders.

But we are changing Governors just now and the consequent fuss has detained the proposals in the offices, so our Govt. programme is not yet out. But it's got to be. In so short a time, the show will of course be limited. But I think we can make it a fair one.

Ale I know about the Chicago Exhibition is that they are getting up a big Committee in London of old Anglo-Indians. They expect, I suppose that as at the Indo Colonial ~~to~~ we out here will toil and collect - and work and describe - ~~to be able~~ and when all is done all the credit we shall have will be to be told by Birdwood that we are ruining everything.

If anything is done for Chicago it should be done between America and India direct.

I have heard nothing officially on the subject and cannot of course move without orders. —

They have started a society at home for the encouragement of Indian art but how it is going to act on the work people in India puzzles me beyond measure.

Very glad you like my book. But I am puzzled about the illustrations. The proofs I got of the engravings were good and I am quite content with the English edition. It may be that the American edition has inferior reproductions.

I am asking Thacker & Co in Bombay to send you a copy of the English edition. Macmillan sent to Washington a series of small photographs of the sketches for deposit according to the rules for ^{american} copy-right.

It may be that from these photos, which I remember were poor & muddy as photos such, the reproductions have been made.

The English press is uniformly complimentary about the illustrations.

The Queen is delighted with the Osborne dining-hall. The designs grew and grew and Ram Singh let himself go in the matter of elaboration till no sketch would give a notion of the work.

Ram Singh is to leave for India this month - but he looks to England and English ways with such enthusiasm, I begin to doubt if he will return at the time fixed.

And I quite expect he will look to be master of us all when he does come.

I am expecting photographs of the room from Mr Mann the Osborne clerk of the works & when he sends I will send to you.

Here comes Colonel Pridcaux, the Kashmir Resident - to see our coins - "because it's a holiday you know" It doesn't seem to occur to him that it's any holiday too.

Will you please repeat your order for panels, giving dates, that I may be down on Dhumpat Rai & Andrews for the delay.

Mrs de Forest talks of her turned lac chairs & couches.
I can't get anything done to please myself. If you would design them I shouldn't perhaps be so hard to please.

In haste

Sincerely Yours
J. L. Kipling.

B.
Mrs Lockwood de Forest

8 East 10th Street

New York City

United States

Vancouver Hotel

Vancouver B.C.

April. 6th/92.

~~My dear~~
Dear ~~Mrs de Forest,~~

Just a good bye to you and Mr de Forest from us both and kisses for the children.

We are off in a few hours if the train from the East arrives on time.

It was a wonderful and beautiful trip, over and we found Spring in working order when we arrived here.
The primroses and all the dear Spring flowers in full bloom.

The trip was comfy enough! but one must feel a little tired after such an go of rail-riding.

Bud is up to his eyes in his Yarns letter but sends out to send you and for ~~the~~ Lovest - his love and grating.

We talk of you and our phasant times in New York and keep our eye fondly on the hope of seeing you in India in the Autumn.

Best wishes for the Summer outing and hearty love from yours affectionately Carrie Whipling-

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Mrs Lockwood de Forest
East 10th Street
New York City
United States

PAID
NEW YORK
JUN 11 1892

To

N.Y.

Yokohama Japan
May 28. [1892]

Dear De Forests:

We were overjoyed to have your letter and all its dear delightful news of your selves and the children.

It's so dreadful about the Giffany illness and our hearts ache for them. This had been such a hard winter for Mrs Giffany that one stroubles for her with this mighty addition of a burden.

There is a mail just in and we hope it will bring us better news of them all.

We are in the midst of reasonable summer weather and most happy and content & think spite of a change in our plans which makes

India out of the question for this winter. It's the usual Publisher and serious enough for Bud to feel he must be on the spot so we are turning our faces to America in late June and shall start to build the house at once so we may have a spot to rest our selves in.

It's wretched but we shall like doing the house and if you are not going out we shan't so much mind.

Japan is perfect and we have been so happily placed. Some dear English folk we met on the steamer who have a jay of a house on top of the Bluff at Yokohama with a garden not to be believed in unless seen. Said we must make their house their headquarters.
Leave our things with them and come and go as pleased us. They have been perfect in their kindness and it's so good to come back to them and a home after a struggle with Jap tea houses and European hotels.

Bud is at work on his Yinus letters and other things and is so well pleased with it all.

We can't write about the land its far too good to picture that way; but we have decided you must see it - its not a thing to miss.

I have been to some Chinese merchants about your material; but with no luck as yet. Its Singapore stuff in truth and they don't import so far.

Bud wrote Mr Marshall care of you good people because we never remember his number. He is so dull

The place is full of tourists and its not an easy matter to get a place on any boat at such short notice.

Its time for this to be sent, if its to get in for the mail.

Best love from Rud and me and kisses for the children.

affectionately
Carrie Hipling.

BRATTLE
AUG 1
9 A 92

Mrs Lockwood at Forest
Cold Spring
Near Syosset
Long Island

New York

Brattleboro
Vermont

Aug. 14. 192

Dear Mrs DeForest

We've been fighting with a new & raw & clumsy cottage for the past four days & have at last managed to tick it into something like shape — to leave alone for a bit. It has been an arduous job though amusing in places. I don't think Heaven made me to put up bedsteads.

However we hope — if you can take us in — to come to you for rest refreshment & repair and picking up the scattered ends of the last few months — on Friday we've a whole host of things to set in New York and so shall encamp at our old boarding house on N. E. 3rd till we've got 'em be more for New York tomorrow Monday but you see for several days we shall be unfit to associate with

No man can serve down town shops & jotic at Long Island at the same time. Marshall Tabib is coming to see us /early in September I believe and if we do not persin him with mad Dwede girls or drive him into a hook he will set on new Site and tell us about the house.

Oh, by the way. The reason we were mixed up with the Oriental banking corporation was because it is - or rather was, was luck - my bank in India and in London and it happens to have a branch in Madama at a meeting of which I assisted in the capacity of a ~~shareholder~~ depositor.

Send us a line at 11. East 32nd Carrie sends you her much love.
She's taking any easy day to stay - hunting servants. Give my severe & respectful salams & good of a hug for Alfred. I gathered from your letter he's better I suppose I shall see both in town. With love to yourself, + Mrs Julia believe us Yours collectively & Exhaustedly Carrie & Rud.

Autograph of Rudyard Kipling
enclosed

Lockwood de Forest Esq.
7. East 10th Street
New York City

10-2-50
24

10-2-50
18

Brattleboro

Oct 1. | 92.

Dear Lock,

I've kept this letter till the last moment so as to wait for things that turned up. Here's wishing you the best of good times in the Good East and the pleasantest of journeys both ways. The family out there have been in some affliction through the illness of an Aunt who came to stay with 'em for a year & then started to be notably ill (Quite now she rather cultivated her maladies) to the weariness & fatigue of my good Mother. Ours Father & Mother both are heartily sick of India & by their letter dated the 30th Aug want to come away.

I quote now from the Pater's letter:-

"I would throw up the Museum and India if I could get the maximum uncorroborated service pension of Rs 5000 which in fact I have earned excepting in the technical details one that though my salary has been practically Rs 1000 per mensem for the last 15 years it has been technically below it by Rs 100 a local allowance for the Museum which does not count in the Accountant General's Computations. Another is that I came out in 1865 under a covenant with the Bombay Government for three years, and it will take a petition and interest to get those three years counted in to my service under the Govt of India I ought to memorialize on these two heads but I have a morbid horror of going abegging. Neither of these things seems insuperable to me. Let the Pater only make up his mind to go & do you stir him to memorialize & petition."

Ballalboro
Oct 1. / 92

Dear Book

The Capt. McAllen like the last moment so as to wait for. He says that times up. This morning for the best of good times in the good part and the position for of January the troops. In terms of the last year in not applicable through the illness of the child who came before me for a year & then decided to be released the (the name of the latter children) in (the name of the) the museum & the place of my good brother. O. W.
Father & Mother both are healthy set of labor & if their letter states the 30th day from to come away.
I just hear from the latter's letter:-

" would draw up the museum and books of and get the museum's management since January to 2000. I wish in fact I have earned something in the technical school. One that through my salary has been practically no too far away from the last 12 years when technically below it to 100 a local observer in the museum which was set back in the 1890s. I have improvements. One then a lot of care out in 1898 under a contract with the hospital government for three years, and it will take a lifetime and interest to get these three years covered in to my service under the part of the 1898 right to a certain degree in two weeks but I have a number of years of my own part of these things seem to be but in fact only make up his mind to do for the time to commercial life & labor.

I have my own notions of what to do my side. I wish to goodness tho' that there were a Conservative Government in power. Sir Lewis up to get his pension question settled while you are in the line.

Tell Meta. with many thanks for her note - We are keeled, well keeled in the matter of Supplementary Dollars in case any accident should arrive.

Inclosed I send letters to Aunt Georgie and Aunt Aggie
- Mrs Bruce. Mrs & Mrs Prynler. You'll find among Mrs Prynler's on a delightful piece.

Send us a line to let us know which your Indiana boat is and when it sails. We desire much to keep track of you. Also tell us if you have an address in the West & if so where. & shall I write the Paper direct.

With much love from Carrie & me to you both
Yours
Rud.

I have my own reasons for what I do and write. I wish to be known as a person who is interested in the welfare of the people and who is not afraid to write for the people.

With best wishes to you and yours, I am, as ever, your sincere friend, Wm. Lloyd Garrison

I have your kind letter to hand and am glad to hear from you. I am
- your friend, Wm. Lloyd Garrison

Wm. Lloyd Garrison my dear friend,
I have your kind letter to hand and am glad to hear from you. I am
- your friend, Wm. Lloyd Garrison

I have your kind letter to hand and am glad to hear from you. I am
- your friend, Wm. Lloyd Garrison

I have your kind letter to hand and am glad to hear from you. I am
- your friend, Wm. Lloyd Garrison

Mrs Lockwood de Forest
~~Care Messrs Ewart Latham & Co.~~
Dak Bengelie
~~Bombay~~
Amedabai
India

WINDY
DRY
1882

11-15
LA

POSTAL CARD ONE CENT

United States of A

THIS SIDE IS FOR ADDRESS ONLY.

Customs

Recd.

Brattleboro. VT.
aug. 27th 92

Rudyard Kipling.

It has given us a spur about the new house and Beatty joins in to help us get it on its legs this winter so we may have a cozy place for him ~~to~~ when he comes.

Julia de Forest has sent us the dearest picture of your boy, with very little on, blowing a pipe. It's perfection and I said in the same breath how you would enjoy it.

Your letter from dear dirty old London amused us immensely. It's the nicest city in the world; but it has its drawbacks and October is not its best time.

Mr Locke's letter from Benidire encourages us to feel you are getting on, you will be home directly! Mr Marshall stayed from Friday until late Monday afternoon and then left us to vote for Charbonne who could have managed quite well with out his help. I quarrelled with him most of the time because of a porch with a miserable seat in it - which we have no use for and I want ~~not~~ made in to an covered drive way. He says it can't be done but it must for its a necessity. I tell him if he leaves the porch out of the contract ~~and~~ I build my own porch as a private enterprise.

He never spent a season in the country and had to get wet and hot and cold and snowed on before he found shelter. Rud won't help because it amuses him to hear us quarrel. but I remember Mr Lock and go on visiting. We delight in Mr Marshall. He and Rud had a fine visit together.
I want Rud to go to New York for a few days to see the men at the Club and have a small spree. He says he will go, but I find he makes when it comes to details. Your mother has most kindly asked him to stay there and so removed his largest objection, the finding a hotel and staying in it. Mamma is having Josephine in town and coming to us for Thanksgiving.

It's just as well not to have Josephine here for any attempt at a family gathering is ~~such~~ ^{only} a sharpened reminder that it's not ~~as~~ it was in the other years and ~~drives~~ the bitter pain home.

It's glorious weather and Pudd and I go forth for small walks and drives each day, always of course the house has to be visited.
They are coming on and we are making a study of how to make the moss, such a shade of green. Stay on the stones now they face

I will have seen Alfred when I write again. South I hope Pudd will