Dear Sir

I am obliged in your favor of Sunday last. I have seen Mr. Hunter & requested him to procure from Mr. Thullison & put into your Hands his receipt for the money paid for our Friend Mr. Dav^a Grant £ 800. This paper will satisfy Mr Grant for the present & furnish a document upon which you will settle the advance with him. As soon as the papers arrive from France I will prepare & see that a full apigment be made & executed.

I shall trouble you with a Letter to Mr Grant and very sincerely wish you a safe & agreeable passage.

Being with Regard

your devoted &c. Serv^t
