

My Dear Sir

Quebec 24th July 1795

Its with pleasure I have learnt, that you and my Fair friend / Your lovely Margot / arrived safe at Montreal, and in perfect health. Nothink I participate in the infinite satisfaction & happiness which you and Her must have enjoyed, on meeting with so many and valuable friends; But in particular M<sup>rs</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Fawish, in finding Her self again in the midst of Her Family, Relations, and a numerous acquaintance, On which pleasing event, I beg leave to felicitate both.

I have given M<sup>rs</sup> Dunlop / by whom this goes forward / a small Phial of the late M<sup>r</sup> Cornu's Eye water, When you have occasion for more you have only to say so, trusting that in the execution of Your commands at all times I'll be prompt. With respectful Compl<sup>ts</sup> to your good Lady, and best wishes for Her's & your welfare. I remain

My Dear Sir

Your very sincerely
