

Dear Sir

Grande Portage 21st July 1796.

Altho' I have not had the pleasure of hearing from you these two years back, I still am happy to hear that you and family are well; whatever has been the Cause of this disappointment is entirely foreign to me; and should I have been so far off the way, as not to keep up to that Gratitude & respect that your friendship deserves of me: I am exceedingly sorry for it; and would be happy to repair the fault. — As I am not certain in what light you may take the present from me; upon the news of this Country at this time, to better poor men, & more Intelligent people, till I am assured that I am welcome — I return you my most respectful thanks, for your Civility & kind offer, to my Brother at Portsmouth — with respects & returns I am
A Dear Sir
Yr. Obedt. Servant. Simon Fraser

Dear Mother, 27th July 1868

I have not had the pleasure of hearing from you for some time, but I am happy to hear that you are all well. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been so busy lately that I have not had time to write you more fully. I am well and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been so busy lately that I have not had time to write you more fully. I am well and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been so busy lately that I have not had time to write you more fully.

Yours affectionately
John
