

William Grant Esq.
The Rivers

London 5th Aug. 1793.

Sir Our last Respects were under the of Cap. Lowthian from Liverpool Copy of Cap. Lunden from Bristol since when being without your favours the Present serves to hand as usual your account Current, Balance due to us at 1st Ult. £564. 3. 3 say Five hundred Sixty Four Pounds Three Shillings & Three pence 1/4 which if right be pleased to confirm in Course & make your Books conformable to —

We are yet unable to render Sales your Beaver which remains in the same situation it did when we last wrote & without any prospect at present of disposal. The affairs of Mr.
Walduck the Buyer who failed having turned out much worse than expected has contributed to prevent it. his reputation stood so fair that we

we had actually lent him £800 for his accommodation & encouragement previous to the Sale, which is gone with sums from others of his Connections into the general Wreck. We can at present only say that you may rely on our best attention to your Interest & assure you we remain respectfully

Sir Your most Obed. Serv<sup>t</sup>
