3. Nov.

London 10. Dec. 1792

Sir

We rec^d in course your favors 28. Sept^r & 17. & 25. Oct^r & note their Cont^s - the sundry parcels Furs ship'd by you to our address am^{tg} together to £ 1477. 16. 8 being safe landed and shou'd, we shall give every attention to the Sale of them; but lament that Prospects shou'd yet remain so unfavorable, you however will be at least on the same footing with other adventurers.

The Bill enclos'd on Turnbull & Co for £ 300. being accep^d will in course be plac'd to your Credit, and we have duly honor'd those you advise to have drawn upon us for £ 50. & for £ 200.

Presuming we may attribute your silence respecting orders for Goods for your private Acc^t to the same motives that have depriv'd us of those of your new House, we have only to add, that we shall at all times be happy to hear of your prosperity, & hoping this may find your Health perfectly reestablish'd,

We remain respectfully

Sir Your most ob^d Serv^{ts}

Dunkwood Carter & Co
