

Messrs Grant & Champion & Co
London 8th Nov 1792

Gentlemen
Our last despatches were under 1st copy by the Packet, & copy by a ship via New York, since which being without your favours, or any ~~news~~ <sup>arrivals</sup> from your side, we have at present only to advise that appearances as to Wheat & Peas remain the same. The former being likely to rise, & the latter to fall - except the Import this Year. be considerably less than the last - and what we really hope may be the case - as the Hudson's Bay Ships are come in bringing about 5000 Beaver. & 2000 other less. and of no article more than last Year.

Appearances as to the Manufactures of this Country are also unfavourable, as almost every Article continues to rise - & we must fear will do so for some time. we therefore hope your Orders will be small for the ensuing Spring & particularly for Woolens which will certainly be at least 20% dearer than last, & very difficult to be got even at that advance Hoping to hear from you by Capt. Teaton by very soon we are Respectfully
Yours most Obedt<sup>s</sup>
B. Withwood Parle & Co
