Mess^{rs}. Grant & Campion & Co.

Gentlemen

London 6. Dec^r. 1792.

We have rec^d. your sundry Letters dated ¹⁴ 16th 18th 21st 25th 26th 28th 29th 30th 31st & note their Cont^s. £3500. of the Insurance effected for your acc^t. has been transferr'd to M^r. Dobie & remain^d. of the £5000. cover'd for you was applied was applied to covering of your M^r. Grant's property as you direct. The Bill for £34. 10. 0 on M^r. Charlton being accepted will in course be plac'd to the Credit of M^r. Grant. — Respecting the God line's complain'd of w^{ch} we intend speaking to M^r. Pudgley I will hereafter advise you the result.

The sundry Bills enclos'd amo^{nt}. to £11402. 10. 3 M^y having been accepted will in course be plac'd to your Credit as they become due; your motives for closing your acc^t. with us, we have no doubt have reconcil'd the measure to your own minds, and to those also, of whose sentiments of gratitude we have heretofore had proofs — in the Conduct you have thus shewn, in return for that liberality you have experienc'd from us, we shall only remark that we are not singular in considering ourselves entitl'd to very different treatment and that we feel infinite satisfaction from not having ourselves to blame for being depriv'd of a Connexion we now find we had estimated at too high a Rate, by having made provision to support it with
