Sir,

We received your much esteemed favour of the 5th ult<sup>o</sup>, by Mr Symes, & are much obliged to you for the trouble you have taken in forwarding our letters. We now trouble you with a few letters to be forwarded by the first opportunity for England, by different Conveyances, as they Original duplicates. We will thank you to let us know the names of the Ships they go in. If we can be of any Service to you in this Country you may freely command us.

Our best respects waits on Mrs Morris the Young Ladies. Our old Servant is now here, who begs you will tell Mr Morris that he has been very much disappointed in not receiving any letters from her, by Post is the safest Conveyance. We remain
