Dear Harry

This morning I received the paper concerning the papers in the Canadian - and they are as I suspected very satisfactory - and must appear in print - I mentioned they subject to gentlemen learned in the law - and they observed that if Mr. O - had been guilty of the accusation ascribed to him he might be severely punished - with imprisonment - Being so therefore - if innocent - he can obtain heavy damages if he prosecutes the party who so wantonly injures his Character - In my own part - I think the Editor of the Canadian ought to deal with no more - I would this - yet expect you were to day - McKenzie or wife - love to the children &

Yours

A McKenzie
