

Jan: 26.

REFORM CLUB,

PALL MALL. S.W.

Dear Noel

I am very sorry.

Ever yours

Wm Russell

Quoted
MD

May 3.

18, WILTON STREET,

S.W.

Dear Noel

Two things in your letter perplex me:

i. You speak of coming here "often". I really did not know it.

Did you leave a card? I am so sorry to have misread you.

distinction between
"Non-Christians" and
"Anti-Christians."

The Existence of long-continued honors & ambitions & tyrannies is the one difficulty in the way of Faith. Textual questions have never perplexed

I am generally at home in the mornings, out in the afternoons.

But a p. card w^d.
secure me at any times.

ii " When it was dark:

I am not a character in

with that book - so far as I know! I meant was a character in "The Hill" which -

Please you to find out.

Thomas Vachell was at Harrow 1876 - S.

He had two younger brothers there - all 3 in Hutton's.

I draw a book

18, WILTON STREET,

S.W.

we; but all the cruelty wrought under the same.

from the beginning
 till now, is indeed a stumbling block.

Indeed - the only way of meeting it to realize but ~~then~~ how we see "through a glass, darkly" — but "then, face to face".

Ever yours
W. R. R. R.

From The Rt. Hon. G. W. E. RUSSELL, 18, Wilton Street, S.W.

- No. I am Emeritus. I must play the part of Carnot, & "organize victory" for you valiant youths.

From The Rt. Hon. G. W. E. RUSSELL, 18, Wilton Street, S.W.

Many thanks. But I am sceptical about the ~~Recommendation~~ you make.
Is it not another "Young Turk"? Beware.

July 1.

18, WILTON STREET,

S.W.

My dear Mother

Hope you very much, & thank you for your invitation.

But have a
best resp.
I never can have any

Heart to revisit
the Home of Columbus.

It is too painful to be a stranger where one
was at home. - 2

Resides, I see
but on the 6th
There

Got a Mean Spring
here!

Erasmus

Westrupell

30[?]

18, WILTON STREET,

S.W.

My dear Noel Rather late in the day, have just been reading the Commonwealth for April, and I cannot forbear to thank

The writer, whoever he may be, seems to see the truth in this matter, as few people do.

With renewed regards,
Ever sincerely yours,

Robt Duffell

Get this book. ⁿ look for me in it!

You for your excellent - discourse. [These been hammering at the same point - ever since 1876 - 9.

Indeed, I never should have entered Parliament,

if it had not been for us.

... - flintstones lead in this matter. Part, since his day, ~~was~~ seems to realize the truth about the Anti Christian spirit, a ti bearing on the

(He wanted a Party)
E. Q.] Your words are most wise & timely.

How you read "When it was Dark"?

18

18, WILTON STREET, S.W.

My dear Boston

It is a pleasure to be consulted on such subjects. A

Young fellow's vocation is of tremendous interest.

I should prefer the Education

back from the City,
and talk the thing over?

I am so glad you like
"Mac."

Ever yours

Wm Russell

occupation for myself except H. does or Parliament. To the letter, the drawbacks are great and numerous.

It wd. take me too long to write them all; but will you come to tea some day on your way

Office to the Bar:
but I do not think very highly of either as a career for a man who is not dependent on his own exertions.
For my own part, I never, from my earliest days, could think of any

June 2. 1903

18, WILTON STREET,

S.W.

My dear Noel

This is really splendid. I can't say how happy

I am. Now I shall be re = presented in the House

d'Almeida, and that is much better than being a Member.

In all earnestness,
I pray God to bless your parliamentary career.

and to make for his faithful and successful soldier in the difficult battle-field of public life.

Your friend

Wm Russell

July 1.

18, WILTON STREET,

S.W.

My dear Noel

Hope you very much, & thank you for your invitation.

But have a
best resp.

I never can have seen any

Heart to revisit
the Home of Columbus.

It is too painful to
be a stranger where one
was at home. - 2

Besides, I ha bit on the 6th.
There

got a mean dining here!

Erasmus

Westrupell