

St. John (Jety) (H.M.) '40
The Crucifixion
St. Ursula

FROM THE BISHOP OF GIBALTAR, AS FROM GIBALTAR DIOCESAN OFFICE,
35, GREAT PETER STREET,
WESTMINSTER,
LONDON, S. W. 1.

Thanks for enclosed.

Yes it is a puzzle - & always will be ! ?

But the main lines are clear.

You have put the first thing - the moral appeal & the deliberate 'publicity' of it - all so true & so vital.

= How to move on to get the ^{young} folk of today to see that there is something more in the story than that; this problem is most awfully difficult! because our young people are brought up, today, without any definite,
Christian teaching as a background.

I mean for instance, the Christ is not just a man, but Representative Man; & therefore acting on behalf of all & with humanity (and all creation) in his Supreme Sacrifice or Offering of himself to the Father;
it is this return to humanity (after the "Fall Away"),
to its true destiny & vocation - & opening the door to a new life, if accepted. (P.T.S.)

Deeply stained & horrors as makes man work while? pagan as before?
Offering - positive?
leading to way?

32, GREAT PORTER STREET,
WESTMINSTER

About

a year ago I urged you & Lucy

(one day at Wpshire?) to give

Jane the chance of classes & lessons in case she would be confined,
of her own free will?
Of course.

I suppose nothing could be done:
moving to moving about — & being at Humble, etc?

Dear Lord Noel Buxton,

Thank you for your letter of the 6th. I have already been in communication with the Ministry of Information, on behalf of the Bishop, and as representing him I had a talk with the Rev. Hugh Martin, who is the head of the religious section.

On the Bishop's instructions copies of most of his memoranda are sent to Mr. Martin. Whether Lord Halifax sees them or not I do not know. If you are able to get them before Lord Halifax personally I think it would be well, because I feel that the work that the Bishop has done is extremely valuable and should be known to those in authority.

Yours sincerely,

Commissary.
