

Charles the Bold ;

OR, THE

RECLUSE

OF

THE WILD MOUNTAIN.

A Tale of the Fifteenth Century,

BY THE MARQUIS D'ARLINCOURT.

Friar Laurence.—Is the bride ready to go to church?
Capulet.—Ready to go but never to return:
O Son, the night before the wedding day,
Death hath embraced thy bride:—see, there she lies,
Flower as she was, nipped in the bud.

Romeo and Juliet.

London :

PRINTED FOR WILLIAM COLE,

(LATE HODGSON AND CO.)

No. 10, NEWGATE STREET.

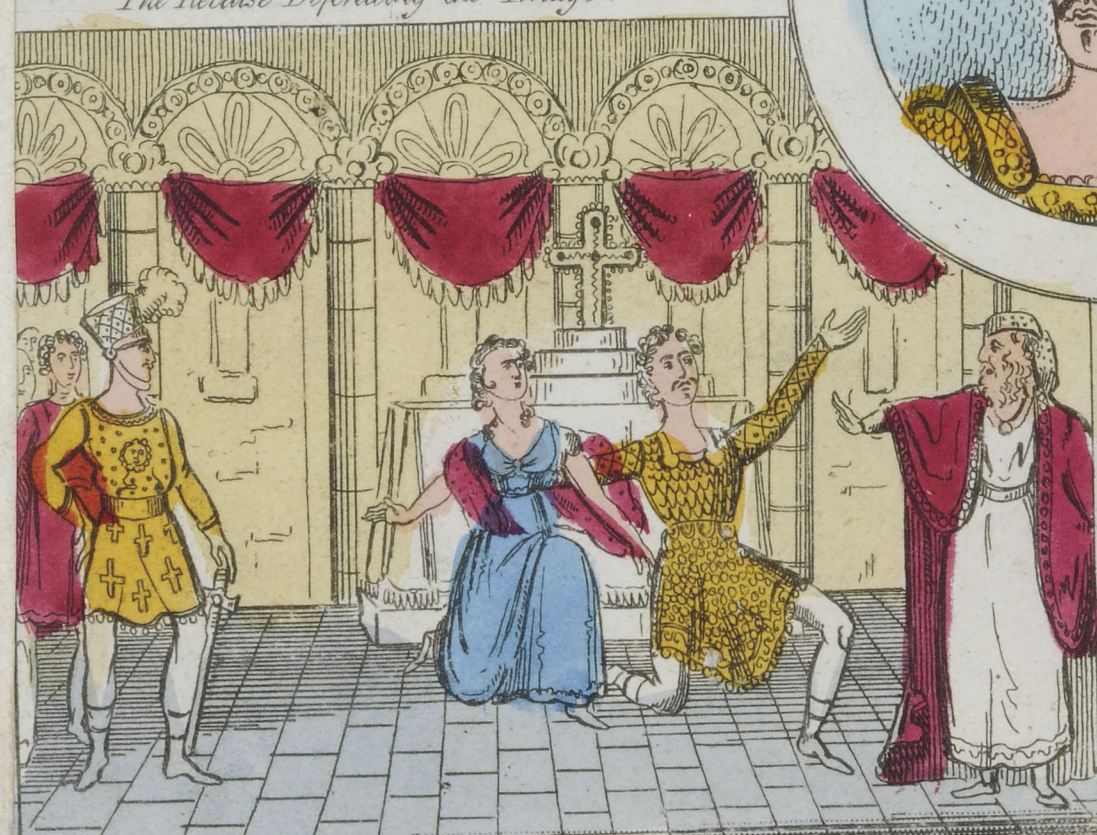

Sixpence.

The Recluse Defending the Bridge.

The Battle with Egbert's Troops & the Mountainers.

Marriage of Charles & Elodie

The Recluse & Elodie in the Bonehouse of Morat.

Pub<sup>d</sup> by Hodgson & Co. 10 Newgate St.

Charles the Bold

THE REVENUE

THE WINDMILL

BY THE MARGRAVE

THE WINDMILL

3530706