My dear Sir

I have marked off the names you mentioned. You will see a flaming attack on the Patriots in today's No. - I suppose it will lead to a hot war this I shall regret but as I mean to make it a rule to admit all parties to free discussion I could not refuse it a place. Perhaps it may have the effect of retaining some of the Greeks who like to see the fun.

Yours ever

Wm. H. Howe
