Dear Sir

I received your note by mail and note the contents, I am sorry I cannot attend to your request, but should advise you to write to Mr Stuart yourself and direct the said to the care of me, and any communication that may take place on the subject between Mr Stuart and me, I shall then as all I can do aid you getting the piece you have stated your paying on behalf to Mr Stuart so as it may urge him to proceed immediately The said I would like be advised of soon and the sooner you write the better in haste

Yours truly
S. B. Johnson
