Mr James Dawson

Sir

Since my return from Pictou I have seen Mr Oxley relative to the cargo of the Barge Tobacco and I find he will give me no satisfaction about the same. I have accordingly Instructed by you advertised the cargo for sale a copy of the advertisement you will find enclosed which I would thank you have put into one of the Pictou Papers should you approve of my proceedings, so far. I would thank you to make me a fair line, informing me of any thing else you might think proper for me to do on the subject

I am Sir

Yours Most Truly

William Forth
