Mr Robert Stutton

Dear Sir

Yours of the 17 + 26 Inst came duly to hand O'Brien only came in yesterday. I shall of course do my best for your interests. The order to O'Brien shall be paid. The half barrel of flour I packed I shall forward by the first opportunity for Liverpool. I neglected sending to ascertain the price of Copper Composition Balls this evening until some of the Standard Establishments were closed up but will do so tomorrow. Let you know by the next mail. anything I can do for you in the way of Business, shall be cheerfully attended to I expect your Brother George will be here by the return of the Fleet Mail Boat

Adieu Dear Sir

Yours respectfully
John W. Deane
