SIR,—

I beg to call your attention to the establishment of the above Company in this Province, on the following basis:—

While it is an integral portion of the general corporation established in England, at the same time it possesses a large paid up and subscribed capital within the Province.

1100 Shares, of £20 Stg. each, are held in the Province; the paid up deposits of £4 Stg. per share on which are to remain permanently invested here, as a guarantee fund to the public.

All losses adjusted and paid in Halifax without reference to London.

Policies of Three Years standing will participate in the Profits.

No charge is made for Policy.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

P. C. HILL, Agent.
