Dear Father

Yours of Dec 9
arrived last week.
also nos of Presb.
Witness & British
Workman, the latter apparently a very useful thing.

I am very glad you sent me a translation of the note, and hope

sequence

It is rather odd to have you sending the story of the McSwain house,
which I had not heard before; however it is quite a mistake
I suppose one time in it - though it is in sight from our windows.

Our Christmas holidays have commenced, and

last till the 8th

January. If the weather is fine I hope to go to Toronto.

At present we have had

very fine most weather

Please say if

Mr. Byrne has given you a certificate for me. You sent a letter enclosed for Dr Taylor some time since; but he has not sent down that it contains anything of that kind, and I take it for granted if it had you would have mentioned it; so I have not cognized of
him. Please procure

The Journal of the Canadian Institute Fronts has a very favorable review of my book. I had intended to send it
but on second thoughts

do not think it worth while to pay postage
for it.
