Dear Sir

Enclosed we beg to hand you statement of account for last year which we trust will be found correct & satisfactory - It will give us much pleasure to hear from you soon again with order -

We send a catalogue by this mail, as also a newspaper giving an account of the presentation of the Freedom of our City to Lord Elgin, which went off today with great elat -

We are

Yours very faithfully with Professors & others which may hereafter be useful to McGill Cole & to himself.

He will have bitterly cold weather ^{in which} to come home - he proposed starting yesterday

- today the thermometer reached 16 below zero.

With the Compts of the season I

I am

Yours at W

Mansay
