Messrs James Dawson & Son

Dear Sirs

Your note of 23rd February, soliciting payment of the 9/- for the book received came to hand yesterday. And in reply I have to state, that I sent 9/- to Messrs McInlay (as I had written to Mr Dawson I would do) a week or two after I received the book. One of my neighbours in Musquodoboit paid the amount to (I think) Mr McInlay's Clerk. I wish you would write to him about it.

I expect to be in Musquodoboit next week when I shall see the person who paid the money, and get him to call at Mrs. W. J. J. J.

the first time he goes to Halifax.

Yours &c

Alex. Russell.
