Dear Father

Yours of March 15 -

just received. I am happy to hear you are well but very

sorry to learn that

Mrs. Nelson has been attacked by paralysis

Please give them my sympathy & good wishes

when you see them.

I have no doubt

you are quite right about me & them. I presume

As I have written this to number of a former with leaving of my father

500-25

from your statement

that about 500 of the St. George remain unwield. Remaining was to a far hand of
if he runs out I shall order Sweden
to send them here.

If Master of the
to not pay, I shall try to see them

the Spring. We shall talk them of the disposal of the demands, there will always be a slight demand for single copies until the book is superseded by something newer.

Thank you for your kind letter of the children. George has written a letter altogether with Dad

now hand. They are getting on pretty well with their lessons. They read a chapter very well every morning

and know the multiple nature of the geography, questions
the S. catenium, &c.

Please in your next letter send me a paper of the best Balsam I can get, as it is likely it is finer in the sorts than what I can get here

We are all well and enjoying the fine
best weather
W. M. best wishes
Yours
Williams
