Manne Belfast, 29th April, 1856.

Dear Sir, When you receive the other books for which I wrote to you last fall you better keep them now until I be over in Tictou: I expect to be over shortly when I will settle with you. You must, however, send the Commentary on the Gospels for which I applied, by the Revs Mr. Snodgrass, who is to be over next week. When you are writing home I should like you to order "The Journal of Sacred Literature" to be sent to me by mail. I am desirous of getting it more regularly. And believe me,

Yours very truly,
Alex. McKay.

Mr. James Dawson, Tictou.
