Dear friend
I have just received your favor with two parcels of books
I am to hand but will when I come in from the country find them on the table. I have been a change for freight and paying 2/6. I have enclosed your four pounds I am now going to the river by road which will I believe save me
about to be from one again I will arrange with you for the book
sent to me, but will reassure you that
with the two volumes
I remain your
Respectfully
