New Glasgow, Saturday

Dear Sir,

I received your note of this week with abstract of account I think there may be some mistake in it but cannot say positively till I return only that it differs a little from my abstract. Perhaps Mr Baird may have made a payment by this time but if not I will attend to it soon.

May I ask also whether you would be disposed to allow about the amount of my account to remain in ^{hand} ~~credit~~ by giving my note and paying interest for some time, say a year or two. I have also an application from a young Merchant in our quarter to enquire if I can ascertain where about £200 could be obtained on good central property as security.
Please to answer me by re
