Dear Mother
I received your letter of the 11th and was glad to hear from you and to hear that you were all well. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

Yours affectionately

Dear Sirs

We duly received your favor of 1st inst & note your remarks about the copy books: we will take care in future that you have no cause for complaint in this respect, as your orders shall be adhered to literally. We must however say, that the motive attributed to us in sending our own books instead of orders is not just, as we assure you we have no desire to thrust our publications upon anyone against their wishes. They were sent because we had no means of procuring Orr's fine glass pen & we thought any books with engraved head lines would probably suit you.

We have taken the opportunity of having a box for Messrs McKinlay, to enclose your parcel as per invoice. We also beg to hand you account current to June 30th which we trust you will find correct.

With best respects

We are, Dear Sirs,

Yours truly
George Philip & Son
