I merely write to inform you that the Academic Journals you sent in April have only just arrived this morning I was afraid they were lost but having only seen me. I thought I would drop you a line. fearing you would think I neglected acknowledging the receipt of them. and you might think I have them safely held by this time

I will try and sell the present lot of Books as soon as possible and forward you the amt. I do not think it likely that we shall print any more this fall however I will see
Your obt servant
