Dear Sirs

We have the pleasure to hand you notice of goods in fulfilment of all your orders to this date including those sent to us for enclosure. We have waited for sometime for either of the conveyances recommended in your last letter, but neither of them offering, we thought it better to send by mail steamer rather than delay longer, - In the parcel we have enclosed a first part of our new Family Atlas, which is so good & cheap, that we think you will be able to secure a good number of subscribers for it, any exertions that you can make to extend its sale in your locality will be much esteemed by us. We have also sent you a copy of the "Great Eastern" steam ship which is selling here very largely & which we think would be popular in your city.

Waiting your further commands

We are, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,
George Philip & Son
