My dear Sir

I intended to write you much sooner with reference to Capt Bayfield's promotion; but could not on account of not being able to learn definitely from any one, I would have asked himself; but circumstances opposed such a movement, from all enquiries then upon this point I am made to understand that he is expecting it with every mail

I have now got settled in P. E. I. and just as you stated I find Captains Bayfield & Colburn, Lieutenant Hancock &c to be men of real piety. Truly therefore I can well see the hand of evidence working in my favour I employed Mr. Stampen here to send to you for some books I hope you will be able to answer his demand.

Wishing your household all all in good health, compliments to Miss Pauline your granddaughter.

I am

my dear Sir

Yours Truly

David Fullarton
