

Cornwallis Novr 4/50

Mess^{rs} J. Dawson & Son

Genl^l.

Your Advt^{ce} was in the hands of the Printer, whom I last wrote you, and will appear in the Almanack in due course.

I have directed 2 Gross^{es} ^{of 12 bound} Almanacks to be sent to you — the first that is despatched to the East — I have made an arrangement for having them conveyed free of charge by the Coaches.

I send you the above 2 Gross^{es} ^{of 12 bound} as I cannot ~~accept~~ agree to the propositions contained in your letter of 29th Ult^o.

The Edition for 1850 was exhausted in the early part of the year, and the demand was so great, that all that was unsold and to spare in the Western Counties was collected and sent to N^o. — and when I was there in April not one was to be obtained. Had we known then of your having any remaining we would have been very glad to have had them to meet the demand.

I am

Y^r Mt^o O^bl^g
