Dear Sir,

We have the pleasure to enclose Invoice of Articles sent to Mess<sup>rs</sup> W & R. Chambers for enclosure, we have given them the amt. £9 to Insure, and requested them to obtain the Drawback, and place it to your Credit; Dr. McDonalds Hymns & Life are entirely out of print, and it is not thought they will be reprinted; Smiths Family Prayers are also out of print, a new edition is at press, but the selling price cannot be under 9<sup>00</sup>; Grants Hymns you will see from the enclosed Catalogue is 1/3<sup>d</sup> sewed, 1/6 cloth, so that our charge of this book is quite correct in our former Invoice. We have written to Glasgow to know who is the Publisher of the Gaelic Periodical, for we think the former Publisher failed; we are also making inquiry regarding Morrison's Gaelic Poems, and should we obtain them we will send them in next parcel.

By next post we will send you the state of the Bill.

With kind regards.

We remain Dear Sir

Yours very truly
W. W. Haylett

Please alter the price of "Smith" in the Catalogue sent you from 6<sup>d</sup> to 9<sup>d</sup>.
